Introducing Philips Therapy Mask 3100 NC for sleep apnea treatment

There's a new sleep therapy mask that you'll want to try. It's called Philips Therapy Mask 3100 NC. People like you are recommending it because of features like how easy, lightweight, and comfortable it is to wear.¹

Everything clicks, right from the start

Effortless magnetic cushion connection,² personalized fit with adjustable headgear and the small size help you get the rest you need.¹ The nasal cradle under-the-nose cushion features a minimal design that delivers a comfortable fit¹ while eliminating soreness and red marks across your nose bridge.⁴

Nasal Cradle Under-the-Nose

Comfortable

Philips Therapy Mask 3100 NC is designed with your comfort in mind as the smallest adult nasal mask we make.³ It is also quiet. Users said Philips Therapy Mask 3100 NC was quieter than their prescribed mask.¹

Easy

Integrated magnets make attaching your cushion effortless.² When you feel the magnets click into place, you can be confident the cushion is correctly assembled. Clear R and L orientation markers on your headgear show you how to place your mask on your head correctly.

Personalized

Features adjustable sliders on the top and back straps of the headgear for a personalized fit.¹ Cushions are available in extra-small, small, medium, large and medium-wide.

Users said Philips Therapy Mask 3100 NC was less intimidating than their prescribed mask.¹
